

Create Magic

Activity Book

Celebrate a Birthday

Bring a cake and celebrate the birthday of a team member in another department.

(Take a picture of the birthday person with the cake and place it here!)

Host and Participate in a Workplace Theme Day

(Take a picture of yourself in your theme costume and place it here!)

Join a Committee for a Fundraising Activity

Report: Describe the organization you raised money for, how you raised the money, the role you played, and how much you raised.

Create a Dream Board

Create a Dream Board of your goals and share it with fellow staff members.

On a large poster board, paste pictures of things that make your heart sing (your dream car, a person with the type of body you want, a place you've always wanted to visit). Listen to your heart. If the photo makes your heart sing, it belongs on your dream board. Post your dream board in your home or workspace to remind you of your goals and resolutions. Negative, self-doubting images can pop into your mind uninvited, but your dream board will help you take control and cancel them out.

Report: Please give details on how you presented your Dream Board, and to whom.

Bring Treats for the Entire Staff!

Report: Please give us a report on what the treats were, and to whom you gave them.

Participate in a Mutual Appreciation Potluck Luncheon

Everyone bring in a potluck dish and have lunch together.

Report: Please tell us what potluck food item you brought, and how much fun you all had.

Read a GREAT Motivational Book and Share What You Learned

Share a 5-minute summary in your next staff meeting on what you learned.

Report: Please tell us the title of the book, when you taught the class, who was present, and how it went.

Wear a Funny Hat All Day

(Take a picture of you with your funny hat and place it here!)

Host a Movie

Clear out a big room in your workplace, tell your staff to bring their pillows, pop up the popcorn, and pop in a great movie for all to enjoy!

(Movie ideas: Whale Rider, Millions, Miracle, Rudy, Coach Carter, Radio, Pay It Forward, The Dress Code, etc. NOTE: Avoid any R-rated movies)

Report: (date, movie watched, comments):

Host a Pancake Breakfast

Organize and Host a Character Awards Event for Your Staff

The Character Award is not about business, it's about character and personality. Each team member presents a handmade award to another team member. This is a great opportunity to honor everyone on your team and have some fun!

Getting Started

- ☐ Put everyone's name in a hat and have each team member draw a name.
- ☐ Set a date for your Character Award Ceremony. Give yourselves a month to do research on your honoree and create your handmade award.

Guidelines

Talk to other team members, family, and friends to find out more about the person. Find out what they do that highlights their character and personality. Do they volunteer with any organizations? How do they create magic in their lives and in the lives of those around them?

Making Your Award

Each award is to be handmade and personal, using your new knowledge about your team member. Take time to create something they would be proud to display. Create it using arts and crafts and your imagination. Remember, the award is about the person receiving it, so you wouldn't want them to be embarrassed to receive or display it. The award is to be given in the spirit of admiration, support, and fun; it should not be condescending, trivial, embarrassing, or sarcastic. The award should be filled with love and respect for the recipient.

Planning Your Ceremony

Plan a wonderful, first-class evening to host the award ceremony. Perhaps you can all get dressed up and reserve a private room at a beautiful restaurant. One by one, each person will give a 3–5 minute presentation about the recipient of the award they created. If you want, you can use music during your presentation and make it as fun and entertaining as you wish. Just remember, you do not want to embarrass anyone or turn the award into a joke.

Report (date, how many attended, who did you give an award to, who gave you an award & comments):
