

OPEN POSITION— Occupational Therapist

Started in 1958, the Kennedy Child Study Center's mission is to assist young children experiencing significant delays in critical areas of development such as cognition and learning, mobility, speech and communication, and social relations.

The Center has an immediate need for an Occupational Therapist (OT) in our Manhattan and Bronx locations. This person would be responsible for the quality of occupational therapy services provided, incorporating state of the art knowledge to assigned children's needs.

RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES:

- Provide screening, evaluation, and therapy services as assigned.
- Participate in interdisciplinary case conferences to determine diagnosis and develop appropriate treatment plans for assigned children
- Provide consultation on issues involving effective motor development to teaching staff and other appropriate personnel and programs.
- Provide counseling to families regarding their child's motor development and stimulation.
- Participate in in-service training and supervision.
- Seek professional growth through maintaining current knowledge and skills pertinent to the performance of job responsibilities.
- Maintain session notes, annual progress reports and IEPs using NYC DOE and KCSC approved software and make available such records and reports as required by the department and Agency.
- Perform other assigned duties as defined and directed by the Supervisor.

QUALIFICATIONS:

A Master's degree in occupational therapy from an accredited college. New York State licensure as an Occupational Therapist required and previous experience in evaluating and treating children with disabilities.

For consideration, email your resume (including a cover letter) and indicate the role ("OT"). When attaching your resume, please save it under your name (e.g., janedoresume.doc) for easier retrieval. Due to the volume of submissions the agency receives, we cannot respond to inquiries.
