

THE RIGHT HAND MAN'S GUIDE TO MISS AMAZING

Thank you for volunteering your time with Miss Amazing! The Right-Hand Man program provides an opportunity for fathers, brothers, cousins, and friends to celebrate the girls and women in their lives by accompanying them onstage during the Presentation in Evening Wear portion of the Miss Amazing show. The program also provides a unique opportunity for boys and men, with and without disabilities, to volunteer together. Whether you are related to a Miss Amazing participant or contributing to Miss Amazing as a volunteer, your involvement with the Right-Hand Man program makes the experience that much more memorable and special for the girls and women participating. Thank you for supporting the girls and women in your lives and in our communities!

BEFORE THE EVENT

Know the Routine

As a Right-Hand Man, you will follow a simple routine along with the participant that you accompany onstage. Click the video below for a breakdown of the routine. We encourage you to review and practice ahead of time!

Understand the Dress Code

We ask that Right-Hand Men wear either a suit, a button-up shirt and slacks, or another formal uniform (military and ROTC uniforms are welcome). Please refrain from wearing jeans, sweatpants, or t-shirts. Your compliance with the dress code contributes to the elegance of the show!

AT THE EVENT

Arrive on Time

Upon arriving at the venue, you will meet the Right-Hand Man Coordinator and your fellow Right-Hand Men. Please arrive at least ten-minutes before your call-time to ensure that all Right-Hand Men have time to review and walk through the routine onstage.

Have Fun!

After all Right-Hand Men have reviewed the routine, the entire group will sit together in the audience. The Right-Hand Men will head backstage shortly before the Presentation in Evening Wear portion of the show. Once the Presentations in Evening Wear have concluded, you'll be acknowledged for your assistance and return to the audience to watch the remainder of the show!
