204. The Country Bridge

Donated by: Rick Pagel

This multipurpose design features an original wood burning of a peaceful, country landscape—complete with a covered bridge! Using reclaimed material from Fraser Construction job sites, the team has built a rustic bench with storage and plenty of hooks for hanging all the necessary Minnesota winter-weather gear.

205. Fireworks and Marshmallows

Donated by: Brandi Bakken, Doug Bakken

Gaze at the sky or gaze at the fire... especially if you are patriotic! These little chairs are perfect for taking along to the fireworks show on the 4th of July or for sitting around the campfire roasting marshmallows. They are easily disassembled, lay flat when storing and give you adequate room for the rest of the gear and the kiddos... you don't have to be a kid to enjoy them either! Fire pit included!

206. Swing in the Breeze

Donated by: Jim Pristash

Our returning artist never fails us! This practical beauty is perfect for the porch, on a stand of its own or under the big oak tree. Thank you, Jim for your annual commitment to A Chair Affair. Your craftsmanship is appreciated as well as your thoughtfulness.

207. Courting Chairs

Donated by: Dan Litzinger

Can't you just imagine how two people with sparkles in their eyes sit and gaze at each other in these chairs? Courting is not what it once was-- an abundant display of affection and an appreciation of the other person's presence. Enjoy this donation in your home and see if this can rekindle that sweet, new-love flame for you and your significant other. Sip a glass of wine, communicate with each other, learn something new, or share a favorite memory... maybe even sneaking in a kiss.
