Black-Eyed Susie

For dulcimer players, this version is closest to the 'real' version. We can "dumb it down" to an overly simplified version, but it might not be recognized in other music circles! Tune is based on the playing of fiddler Doc Roberts (1897-1978) from Madison County, Kentucky. The melody can be traced back to the 16th century.

Traditional

For dulcimer players, this version is closest to the 'real' version. We can "dumb it down" to an overly simplified version, but it might not be recognized in other music circles! Tune is based on the playing of fiddler Doc Roberts (1897-1978) from Madison County, Kentucky. The melody can be traced back to the 16th century.