Corporate & Securities | Latin American and Iberian Practice

Osvaldo Miranda works as a foreign associate at Greenberg Traurig’s Miami office, with the firm’s Latin American and Iberian Practice. He assists clients doing business in Latin America and the Caribbean, including Cuba, Brazil, Mexico, Colombia and Panama. Osvaldo practiced law in Cuba as an attorney representing private clients and, as a judge in one of Cuba’s commercial courts. While in Cuba, his practice focused on exclusively representing foreign investors doing business in the island. During this time, he was engaged in several high-profile transactions and court cases, such as Tokmakjian, Coral Capital, Marambio and Habaguanex. Osvaldo is a licensed attorney in New York and Cuba. He is also a licensed foreign legal consultant in the State of Florida. Osvaldo graduated from the University of Havana and Duke Law School.
