

Tennis Day in Georgia

Wednesday, September 14, 2016 from 4-6 P.M.
at the Georgia Governor's Mansion

The Georgia Tennis Foundation (GTF) is thrilled to be partnering with Governor Nathan Deal and First Lady Sandra Deal to celebrate Tennis & Education on Wednesday, September 14, 2016 from 4-6pm at the Governor's Mansion. Governor Deal will declare September 14, 2016 as Tennis Day in Georgia!

GTF supporters and sponsors are passionate about the great impact of tennis as a "life sport" encompassing more than just physical fitness. Tennis is helpful in building social skills and character that extend far beyond the court and classrooms for all ages.

The Georgia Tennis Foundation has invited kids from partner programs like the YMCA, AGAPE, Atlanta Youth Tennis & Education Foundation (AYTEF) and additional tennis friends to come to the Governor's Mansion to see the newly resurfaced tennis court (compliments of GTF & Signature Tennis) and enjoy an exhibition, tennis activities, food and the official "proclamation" presentation.

Special thanks to Governor and Mrs. Deal, his office, individual donors, sponsors like IberiaBank and volunteers from GTF Board of Directors, USTA Georgia, AYTEF and ALTA. Georgia Tennis Foundation hopes to continue growing and expanding the Joe Dorn First Serve grass roots tennis programs across the state of Georgia.

By the end of 2016, the Georgia Tennis Foundation will have served nearly 100,000 disadvantaged youth through our statewide summer and after school tennis programs that are part of the Joe Dorn First Serve initiative. You can learn more about the GTF mission to grow tennis in Georgia at <http://georgiatennisfoundation.org> and <https://www.facebook.com/georgiatennisfoundation>.

Invitation Only!

For more information, please contact:
Tse Lan Kunian, Executive Director
Georgia Tennis Foundation
Phone: 678-905-2983
georgiatennisfoundation@gmail.com