

Bathurst Wholefood Co-operative Discount policy – March 2014

This document sets out the discount policy for the co-operative as determined by the Board and incorporates recent decisions regarding the provision of discounts for volunteers.

1. Each financial member of the co-op is entitled to 10% discount on purchases from the store. Members must produce their member card or if this is not available they must be listed as financial on the member listing at the cash register.
2. Students can get a 10% discount on production of their current student card.
3. Members of the Blue Mountains Food Co-operative get a 10% reciprocal discount on production of their membership card of that co-operative.
4. The shop co-ordinators are entitled to an additional 10% discount on their shop purchases in recognition of their additional volunteer hours in the co-operative.
5. Board members are entitled to an additional 10% discount.
6. Volunteers are entitled to a 10% discount.

A person may volunteer either by assisting in the co-operative store, performing administrative tasks for the co-operative or assisting in other promotional activities such as assisting with stalls or at functions scheduled by the co-operative. Persons who commit to volunteering on a regular basis of approximately 6 hours each month will be entitled to a 10% discounts on all purchases. Persons who volunteer on occasion will be provided with a single use 10% discount voucher for each 3 hour occasion. The discount voucher will be issued by a shop co-ordinator and must be surrendered when the voucher is used for the purpose of obtaining the discount at the cash register.
