Notice of Policies and Practices to Protect the Privacy of Your Health Information

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

I. Disclosures for Treatment, Payment, and Health Care Operations

I may use or disclose your protected health information (PHI), for certain treatment, payment, and health care operations purposes without your authorization. In certain circumstances I can only do so when the person or business requesting your PHI gives me a written request that includes certain promises regarding protecting the confidentiality of your PHI. To help clarify these terms, here are some definitions:

- “PHI” refers to information in your health record that could identify you.
- “Treatment and Payment Operations”
- Treatment is when I provide or another healthcare provider diagnoses or treats you. An example of treatment would be when I consult with another health care provider, such as your family physician or another psychologist, regarding your treatment.
- Payment is when I obtain reimbursement for your healthcare. Examples of payment are when I disclose your PHI to your health insurer to obtain reimbursement for your health care or to determine eligibility or coverage.
- Health Care Operations is when I disclose your PHI to your health care service plan (for example your health insurer), or to your other health care providers contracting with your plan, for administering the plan, such as case management and care coordination.
- “Use” applies only to activities within my office, such as sharing, employing, applying, utilizing, examining, and analyzing information that identifies you.
- “Disclosure” applies to activities outside of my office, such as releasing, transferring, or providing access to information about you to other parties.
- “Authorization” means written permission for specific uses or disclosures.

II. Uses and Disclosures Requiring Authorization

I may use or disclose PHI for purposes outside of treatment, payment, and health care operations when your appropriate authorization is obtained. In those instances when I am asked for information for purposes outside of treatment and payment operations, I will obtain an authorization from you before releasing this information. I will also need to obtain an authorization before releasing your psychotherapy notes. “Psychotherapy notes” are notes I have made about our conversation during a private, group, joint, or family counseling session, which I have kept separate from the rest of your medical record. These notes are given a greater degree of protection than PHI. You may revoke or modify all such authorizations (of PHI or psychotherapy notes) at any time; however, the revocation or modification is not effective until I receive it.

III. Uses and Disclosures with Neither Consent nor Authorization

I may use or disclose PHI without your consent or authorization in the following circumstances:

Child Abuse: Whenever I, in my professional capacity, have knowledge of or observe a child I know or reasonably suspect has been the victim of child abuse or neglect, I must immediately report such to a police department or sheriff's department, county probation department, or county welfare department (Child Protective Services). Also, if I have knowledge of or reasonably suspect that mental suffering has been inflicted upon a child or that his or her emotional well-being is endangered in any other way, I may report such to the above agencies.

Adult and Domestic Abuse: If I, in my professional capacity, have observed or have knowledge of an incident that reasonably appears to be physical abuse, abandonment, abduction, isolation, financial abuse or neglect of an elder or dependent adult, or if I am told by an elder or dependent adult that he or she has experienced these or if I reasonably suspect such, I must report the known or suspected abuse immediately to the local ombudsman or the local law enforcement agency.

I do not have to report such an incident if:

1. I have not been told by an elder or dependent adult that he or she has experienced behavior constituting physical abuse, abandonment, abduction, isolation, financial abuse or neglect;
2. I am not aware of any independent evidence that corroborates the statement that the abuse has occurred;
3. The elder or dependent adult has been diagnosed with a mental illness or dementia, or is the subject of a court-ordered conservatorship because of a mental illness or dementia; and
4. In the exercise of clinical judgment, I reasonably believe that the abuse did not occur.

Health Oversight: If a complaint is filed against me with the Licensed Professional Counselors Board of Examiners, the Board has the authority to subpoena confidential mental health information from me relevant to that complaint.

Judicial or Administrative Proceedings: If you are involved in a court proceeding and a request is made about the professional services that I have provided you, I must not release your information without 1) your written authorization or the authorization of your attorney or personal representative; 2) a court order; or 3) a subpoena duces tecum (a subpoena to produce records) where the party seeking your records provides me with a showing that you or your attorney have been served with a copy of the subpoena, affidavit and the appropriate notice, and you have not notified me that you are bringing a motion in the court to quash (block) or modify the subpoena. The privilege does not apply when you are being evaluated for a third party or where the evaluation is court-ordered. I will inform you in advance if this is the case.

Serious Threat to Health or Safety: If you communicate to me a serious threat of physical violence against an identifiable victim, I must make reasonable efforts to communicate that information to the potential victim and the police. If I have reasonable cause to believe that you are in such a condition, as to be dangerous to yourself or others, I may release relevant information as necessary to prevent the threatened danger.

Worker's Compensation: If you file a worker's compensation claim, I must furnish a report to your employer, incorporating my findings about your injury and treatment, within five working days from the date of the your initial examination, and at subsequent intervals as may be required by the administrative director of the Worker's Compensation Commission in order to determine your eligibility for worker's compensation.

IV. Patient's Rights and Counselor's Duties

On your request, I will discuss with you the details of the request and denial process.

DECLARATION OF PRACTICES AND PROCEDURES

Dr. Kristen UnKauf, LPC
215 St. Ann Drive Suite 2
Mandeville, La. 70471
985-951-2250

Qualifications: I earned a Ph.D. in Counselor Education in 2010 from the University of New Orleans. I am licensed as an LPC (#3492) with the LICENSED PROFESSIONAL COUNSELORS BOARD OF EXAMINERS, 8631 SUMMA AVENUE, BATON ROUGE, LOUISIANA 70809 TELEPHONE 225.765.2515.

Counseling Relationship: I see counseling as a process in which you, the client, and I, the counselor, come to understanding and trust one another, work as a team to explore and define present problem situations, develop future goals for an improved life, and work in a systemic fashion toward realizing these goals.

Areas of Expertise: I focus on clients with relationship and adjustment issues, as well as general mental and emotional well-being. I am certified and specialize in the use of Eye Movement Desensitization and Reprocessing (EMDR.)

Fee Scales: The fee for my services is $140.00 per 50 minute session. Payment is due at the beginning of each session. Clients are seen by appointment only. Clients will be charged $95.00 for appointments that are broken or canceled without 24-hour notice. Payment is accepted from insurance companies. Please be advised that you are responsible for any fees that are not covered by insurance.

Services Offered and Clients Served: I approach counseling from a family systems perspective which views the family as an emotional unit of interlocking relationships which have an impact on the thinking, feeling, and behavior of each family member. I work with clients 18 years of age and older.

Code of Conduct: As a Counselor, I am required by law to adhere to the Code of Conduct for practice that has been adopted by my licensing board. A copy of this Code of Conduct is available to you upon request.

Privileged Communication: Materials revealed in counseling will remain strictly confidential except for the following circumstances in accordance with state law: 1) The client signs a written release of information indicating informed consent of such a release, 2) the client expresses intent to harm him/herself or someone else, 3) there is a reasonable suspicion of abuse/neglect against a minor child, elderly person (60 or older), or a dependent adult, or 4) a court order is received directing disclosure of information.

It is my policy to assert privileged communication on behalf of the client and the right to consult with the client if at all possible, except during an emergency, before mandated disclosure. I will endeavor to apprise clients of all mandated disclosures as conceivable.

In the event of marriage and family counseling, material obtained from an adult client individually may be shared with the client's spouse or other family members only with the client's written permission. Any material obtained from a minor client may be shared with the client's parent or guardian.

Emergency Situations: If an emergency situation should arise, you may seek help through hospital emergency room facilities or by calling 911.

Client Responsibilities: You, the client, are a full partner in counseling. Your honesty and effort are essential to success. If, as we work together you have suggestions or concerns about your counseling, I expect you to share these with me so that we may make the necessary adjustments. If it develops that you would be better served by another mental health provider, I will help you with the referral process. If you are currently receiving services from another mental health professional, I expect you to inform me of this and grant me permission to share information with this professional so that we may coordinate our services to you.

Electronic Communication: As I may be professionally subscribed to various forms of social media and electronic communication, any on-line connection could compromise your confidentiality as a client. Any attempt to contact me via these methods is not in any way a vehicle to message me. Aside from telephone calls to the office (985.951.2250), please utilize the patient portal secure message feature in my electronic medical records system to send me a secure message. Please be advised that it could take up to three business days for me to access electronic messages.

Court Appearance and Records Requests: Should you wish or I am required to appear in Court or at a Deposition, you are financially responsible for my time for that appearance at a rate of $350 per hour. You are responsible for any legal fees incurred by Northlake Medical Psychology and Counseling relevant to any Court actions sought on your behalf.

Physical Health: Physical health can be an important factor in emotional well being of an individual. If you have not had a physical examination in the last year, it is recommended that you do so, and to list any medications that you are now taking.

Potential Counseling Risk: The client should be aware that counseling poses potential risks. In the course of working together additional problems may surface of which the client is not initially aware. If this occurs, the client should feel free to share these concerns with me.

I have read and understand the above information.
