

The Festival of Fun and Fellowship is for people of all ages. Imagine us lining the sidewalks with displays, activities food samples, art projects, games, and other interesting opportunities. We invite Yearly Meeting Boards and Committees, local meetings, USFW groups, Youth groups, affiliated organizations, special projects and individuals to provide something to share. Here are some examples:

- A musician in your meeting wants to sell CD recordings
- Your meeting has prepared historical displays for an anniversary celebration you could share
- The kids in your meeting have made some artwork for sale or display to support a special mission
- An artist sets up items for display or for sale
- Your praise band claims an area and plays/sings to entertain us
- A table for book exchange will be set up. For every book you bring, you take one home
- Your sewing or quilter's group has items to display or sell (We do NOT want to take business away from the Indian table.)
- Your committee wants to talk to people about the work you do and pass out brochures
- Homemade ice cream is a specialty of your group and you bring enough to sell by the dish

Please call Sylvia Graves (317-831-7171) with your questions and/or with your plans to provide something for the festival. Or click on this link to complete an application.
