A Workshop at Quaker Hill Conference Center

Richmond, Indiana

FEBRUARY 23 & 24, 2018

Clerking: Serving the Community with Joy and Confidence

With Arthur Larrabee

About the workshop

This workshop will be an opportunity for anyone interested in Quaker decision-making. Every member of a meeting would benefit from a clerking workshop, whether or not they ever intend to be a clerk.

The workshop will also be an opportunity for both brand new and experienced clerks, including clerks of committees and meetings. It is expected that each person will leave the weekend with new energy and enthusiasm for being a clerk, or for simply participating in a Quaker meeting for business, feeling well grounded in both the theoretical and the practical. There will be handouts, exercises and opportunities for questions and dialogue.

Among other topics, we will consider:

- The fundamentals of a Quaker meeting for business
- Historical advice from 1662
- What is a "sense of the meeting," and how is it different from consensus?
- What is the meaning of "unity" and how is it different from unanimity?
- "Standing aside" and what happens when we're not in unity?
- Dysfunctions found in the use of Quaker process
- Techniques of "good" clerking.
