Hi Undergrads,

Hope you had a great first week of classes!

MIT's new at-cost grocery store, TechMart, inside Rebecca's Cafe in Walker Memorial opens today, and the SwipeShare program has expanded to include donation of regular and guest meal swipes.

Reminder that applications to join the UA are due this Wednesday, Sept. 19th. You can find more information about our committees at ua.mit.edu.

Applications to join the UA are now open, and are due this Wednesday, Sept. 29th!

TechMart Opens Today

MIT's at-cost grocery, TechMart opens today! In collaboration with Rebecca's Cafe, TechMart will offer staples like vegetables, fruit, rice, flour, pasta, soups, sauces, grains, spices, meats, dairy. It's located inside Rebecca's Cafe in Walker Memorial on the second floor. It will be open during Rebecca Cafe's regular operating hours, 3:00 pm - 11:00 pm, Monday - Friday.

SwipeShare Updates
Through the SwipeShare program started last year, students on the meal plan can donate meal swipes to a pool of meals made available to MIT students in need. Last semester when SwipeShare started, students were only able to donate guest meal swipes. This year, students are now able to donate both guest meal swipes (if they are on an 'any' plan), and regular meal swipes (if they are on a block plan). Students can donate here! If any student is facing food insecurity, they should visit an S3 dean in 5-104.

UA Cabinet & Operations Meeting
The first UA Cabinet & Operations meeting, to discuss the work of UA Committees will be next Thursday, September 20th from 7:00 - 8:00pm in the Senate Chambers (W20-400). Cabinet meetings are also open to all undergraduates.

UA Council Meeting
The first UA Council meeting minutes are attached here. Add yourself to ua-council-listeners@mit.edu to receive the agenda, meeting reminders, and minutes. The next UA Council meeting will be Wednesday, Sept. 26th from 7:30 - 9:00pm in the Senate Chambers (W20-400).

CEE Young Alumni Panel
When: Thursday, 9/20 at 6pm
Where: E51-145
Contact: cee-apo@mit.edu

A CEE degree applies to real-world industry positions after graduation in various ways — join us for our first annual Young Alumni Panel on Thursday, September 20 at 6 pm in E51-145 to hear from CEE graduates about the dynamic careers they have explored after graduating from MIT.

CEE alumni are now applying their skills in a variety of interesting and diverse industries such as crypto-currency, software development and social media groups. Our alumni are eager to discuss their journeys to success, as well as answer questions about career paths in new and emerging fields.

Panelists will include:

Paula Gonzalez ’14 – Program Officer, New Economy Initiative
Majdolene Khweis ’15 – People Operations, Coinbase
David Ogutu ’15 – Entrepreneur, former Software Engineer, Google
Ashley Wheeler ’15 – Air Quality Consultant, Ramboll
Gina Dunham ’11 – Facilities Support Manager, Facebook
Madison Noteware ’16, MEng ‘17 – Structural Engineering, Thornton Tomasetti

Following the Young Alumni Panel there will be a Networking Reception at 7 pm in the Samberg Conference Center, Dining Room 2 open to local CEE alumni and current MIT students. This is a great opportunity for current students to connect with alumni and learn more about industry and professional opportunities.
