

The Australian Art Quartet entrances audiences with performances that playfully sidestep routine, cliché and orthodoxy.

Since their debut in 2015 the group has swiftly made impact on the national fine music and arts scene with their sell-out concerts at the Yellow House Sydney.

With a refreshing and personable style, the Quartet's appeal to audiences of all ages and backgrounds has been demonstrated by their keen following, described as "the envy of the arts scene."

T H E
A U S T R A L I A N
Q U A R T E T
T

In 2015, the Australian Art Quartet presented concerts in Wollongong, Canberra, Cooma, Yass, Braidwood, Ulladulla, Bundanoon, Picton, Berry, Goulburn, Moruya, Bega and Kangaroo Valley.

In 2017, the Australian Art Quartet is dedicated to reaching all audiences and is once again available for engagements in regional NSW, Victoria & Queensland.

Experience the AAQ in action. Click here.

Find out about past AAQ events. Click here.

Enquire about booking the AAQ. Click here.

“Gripping intensity... Impeccable cohesion... Exquisite translucence.”

— Limelight Magazine

www.artquartet.com