Dooboo Cat

Good night, I am the youngest of this house
and I am drying my sister, taking pictures
with that funny look and love is on the corner.
Today is a good friend, the world in itself.
I worry so much, help me, a man called Tofu
spread the things you put in the comments.
It's not good. Followed by a Saturday rotation, you are my vitamin. I've collected a lot of beard in a box with my mother eyes, I've seen only beard and got a headache. Is there a God making me sick?

Sakuracos

I'm pleased with the new chairs, a recent return to the origins. In the jungle zone, I finished my work.

All were at the birth, sighing. I'm sorry, I have bad manners and when I fell on the floor I was choked.

I drink too much and I sleep proudly. I do not take naps on the last night of the open corn. I am so full of pig.

It's opening season and my face is itching. There are earthquakes, my parents are evacuated. Great.

Fuzzy Stinky

Snack time, we all know that sound, so phoney.
You're getting close to the event I'd like to join.
I'm late, I'm very sorry. If the case is full of honey then today is eating from me, just me.
Well, it ends in September, my sore throat rumbling while you are asleep. This morning I slept until five. I love you, Mitsu, with my small patrol at two I got rid of your throat.
Love them with honey.

Rina Takei

A cold comes every night on top of me sleeping,
even sleeping between my legs, which is nice.
It did not strike a betrayal. I don't want him.

I like the smell of bread, what my husband was.
For the first time, Autumn, behold
this model-like expression.

Uncle wipes the window a lot, although the window didn't need cleaning. To be is a mystery.
I was cleaning my uncle in the home of the desired.

Now it's time for bed. The eyes in the back of my head pretend I have a window at the side of me
where you were staring at yourself.
