Terms and Conditions

Attendance

Final numbers of attendees are required 2 business days prior to the event for catering and billing purposes. This will be the minimum number charged for. Any additional guests over the number confirmed, the quoted and agreed price per person will apply providing that The General Assembly can accommodate the extra numbers.

Please note that unless otherwise specified, all lunch events conclude at 4 pm, and all dinner events at 11 pm. Time extensions can be requested with prior notice and availability.

Deposits

A deposit is required to confirm your booking and secure the reservation. The deposit is 50% of the confirmed minimum spend. Tentative bookings will be held for seven days only. If verbal communication is not received within this time, management reserves the right to cancel the booking and allocate the venue to another client. Once the deposit has been received, a receipt will be issued and the deposit will be deducted from the final account.

Final Payment

Final payment is to be settled at the conclusion of your event. Methods of payment available are cash, Visa, MasterCard and AMEX. The deposit will be deducted from the final account. Please note that all card payments incur a 2% surcharge

Cancellation

Should a cancellation become necessary, it must be made in writing and the refund of your deposit will be:

- Cancellation at more than 60 days prior to the event. Full refund
- Cancellation at 59 to 30 days prior to event. 50% refund
- Cancellation of less than 30 days prior to event. No refund

Pricing

All prices quoted in this document are GST inclusive. Whilst they are correct at the time of printing please be aware that they are reviewed on a six monthly basis and not guaranteed until your reservation is confirmed by way of a deposit being paid. For reservations further than twelve months out we advise that a minimum of CPI will be added. Every endeavour is made to maintain prices as printed, but these may be subject increases at The General Assembly's discretion. A minimum spend or quotation will be provided in writing by The Functions Manager.

Food and Beverage

Dietary requirements are to be confirmed one week prior to your event. Any changes thereafter to the agreed menu and beverage choices must be made through management. The General Assembly reserves the right to make seasonal menu changes without notifying the client. The General Assembly reserves the right to substitute selected beverages with beverages of equal value, if preferred selections are unavailable.

BYO Policy

Hosts and guests are not permitted to bring any food or beverages of any kind into The General Assembly for consumption, with the exception of celebration cakes. A cakeage fee of $3 will be charged per guest for cutting, plating, and serving.

Decorations

All intended decorations must be discussed with The General Assembly prior to the event. We do not allow any decorations to be affixed permanently or temporarily to any walls, ceilings, or fixtures. We do not allow confetti, glitter scatters or party poppers in the venue or the surrounds. The client will incur a cleaning fee of $300.00 if this is not adhered to.

Entertainment:

The General Assembly provides complimentary background music for all functions, controlled by the venue. Live entertainment can only be provided by the client if they have booked the entire venue.

Pre-function Details

Table plans and seating arrangements must be presented one week prior to your event. Place cards and final guest list (if applicable) are required 24 hours prior to your event. Any particular items required from outside of The General Assembly may be delivered after 9am on the morning of the event, and removed at the conclusion of the event.

Conduct of Event

The client shall conduct the event in an orderly manner compliant with the rules of the venue, and in accordance with all applicable Victorian State Laws. The client is liable for the actions of their invitees and any damages or losses incurred. Any costs will be invoiced directly.

Liability

The venue does not assume responsibility or liability for any loss or damage to any property belonging to the client, client's guests or invitees. The venue reserves the right to exclude or remove any undesirable persons from the event or the venue premises without liability. The venue also reserves the right to cancel the booking if: The venue or any part of it is closed due to circumstances, the deposit has not been paid by the due date, the client becomes insolvent, bankrupt or enters into liquidation or receivership, the event may prejudice the reputation of the venue.

Unforeseen Weather Conditions

A large part of The General Assembly is outdoors. These areas whilst mostly provided with shelter and heating, are susceptible to change in weather conditions.

If events beyond The General Assembly's control including untimely heat/cold/rain/storms etc. occur, The venue will endeavour to accommodate the client in another area if available. The General Assembly takes no responsibility for inclement weather and that the client has acknowledged the areas they have booked by signing The Function Agreement.

Responsible Service of Alcohol

The General Assembly's management and employees will at all times be bound to state licensing laws, and the Responsible Service of Alcohol Act. The General Assembly reserves the right to refuse service to any patrons who appear to be intoxicated, behave in a disorderly fashion or under the age of 18 years.

Security
