

Every time I sit down to express my feelings in writing, I think of family. You, Noel UMC, have been my church family for many years. I have learned so much over time about worship, the Bible, faith, prayer, Christian fellowship, and God's love. As I grow older, all of this takes on a deeper meaning in my life.

I know too that in times of trouble or grief, I can pick up the phone or drop by the church and someone is always there to talk with me, and give me the love and support I need to help me thru difficult situations. The proof of this is during the recent loss of my sister.

I think the one thing I value most for myself is inner peace. Along with my love, trust and faith in God and my Noel Church family, I have found it and I am content.
