

When I think of Noel, I think of hope. I see hope and tranquility in the faith of our oldest members. I see hope in the children who dance to the music in the Contemporary Service. We are an active, serving congregation who make a difference in God's world.

If you are in need of hope, come to Noel and just look around.

Frank Noles