

Dear Noel, my family and I have experienced all of life's emotions with you for support: births, weddings, funerals, baptisms—just to name a few. And through it all, my faith was strengthened and my family increased to include all of you. God bless this place—the place I call home.

Ann Holland