WORK IN PROGRESS

- 98.1.03 Anastasia Dakouri, Faculty of Classics, University of Cambridge, UK, sends the following report:
 "I am pleased to inform you that a new thesis on Mycenaean Thebes has just been completed and submitted: A.C. Dakouri, "The House of Kadmos at Mycenaean Thebes: a re-examination of the architecture", thesis submitted to the department of Classics, University of Durham (U.K) for the degree of MA by research, Durham 1998.
 "Notes: Word length: 54.000. New plan and sections included. The thesis includes a reconstruction of the hill on which the building has been erected, a review of excavations and clean-up operations up to 1998 (a new clean-up operation in April/July 1998 forms the basis of the plan and the re-examination of the layout), a re-examination of surviving remains and an overview of new data, a discussion of building materials and techniques, and finally conclusions. The clean-up operation was in collaboration with the IX Ephorate of Classical and Prehistoric Antiquities".
