¹² And they abandoned the LORD, the God of their fathers, who had brought them out of the land of Egypt. They went after other gods, from among the gods of the peoples who were around them, and bowed down to them. And they provoked the LORD to anger...¹⁶ Then the LORD raised up judges, who saved them out of the hand of those who plundered them. -Judges 2:12 and 16

Olympia Vake Tukutau was born and raised on the humble islands of Tonga. She has been married to her husband, Sione for 24 years. Sione is currently the senior pastor of the First United Methodist Church of Greeley. Olympia and Sione have been gifted with two wonderful sons. Epeli is 23 years old, and in college. Harvey graduated from Kearns High School in Kearns, Utah on May 27. He will be a freshman at the University of Northern Colorado in the coming fall semester.

Olympia graduated from Tupou High School, Nukualofa, Tonga in 1990. She studied Computer, Math, English, and Accounting at the Portland Community College in Portland, Oregon in 1993 - 1994; and English (ESL) at the Western Community College, Rock Springs, Wyoming in 2011.

Olympia has gained different work experiences as a hotel receptionist, bank teller, and teacher's assistant.

She has received certificates from Lay Speaker Training both Basic and Advanced Courses and has great experiences in parish ministry from preaching and performing communion to teaching Sunday School, VBS, UMW, choir, special music, visitation, counseling, and much more.

Olympia said, "My family and I are so grateful for the gifts and graces that God has offered us for parish ministry. Especially for the outstanding cross-cultural ministry skills we learned, which has enabled us to put our faith, vision and mission into practice as we seek to serve and change the world."

My family and I are so excited, humbled and honored to join you at Eaton United Methodist Church 'making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world'. May God bless us and guide us as we journey together.

Blessings,
Olympia
