

DRIVING INSTRUCTIONS

Rosario Resort & Spa is located on Orcas Island, 80 miles northwest of Seattle, Washington and 95 miles southwest of Vancouver, British Columbia, in the San Juan Islands of Washington State.

The Washington State Ferry departs from Anacortes, WA and from Sidney, British Columbia on Vancouver Island. The Sidney ferry stops in Friday Harbor only, where a transfer needs to be made to Orcas Island.

FROM SEA-TAC AIRPORT TO THE WASHINGTON STATE FERRIES TERMINAL IN ANACORTES:

1. Leaving Sea-Tac Airport, travel north on Interstate 5 for about 90 minutes, until you reach Burlington, WA (just past the Mount Vernon).
2. Take exit 230 (just past Costco on the right), and travel west on Highway 20 for about 30 minutes to Anacortes, WA.
3. Follow the signs to Anacortes (do not turn left on the HWY 20 Spur to Oak Harbor).
4. Turn Right on Commercial Ave.
5. Turn left on 12th St. Follow signs to San Juan Islands Ferry Terminal.

FROM THE ORCAS FERRY LANDING TO ROSARIO RESORT:

1. Driving off the ferry, turn left onto Orcas Island for 17 miles.
2. Look for the Rosario Resort sign on your right, just before the entrance to Moran State Park.
3. Turn right onto Rosario Road and follow it as it winds down the hill to the resort. Stay to the right at the bottom of the hill and proceed to the Moran Mansion for check-in.

Leave your luggage in your car during check-in, as most rooms are a short drive.
