

KENNETH M. LARISH
CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Ken Larish has more than 20 years of experience in real estate development. As CEO of Mainland, his focus is on capital formation and leading the structuring of private transactions and investments.

Ken began his career practicing law in both Dallas and Nashville where he specialized in representing national development companies as well as property owners and tenants. As an attorney, Ken was involved in more than 30 million square feet of commercial real estate transaction, and served as counsel in major corporate mergers and acquisitions as well as private placements.

Ken left private practice to serve as General Counsel for RM Crowe, a Texas-based holding and management company with an office portfolio of more than 60 properties and a total asset value of more than $500 million.

Prior to forming Mainland, Ken was Executive Vice President of Tennessee's largest big-box retail development company. In this capacity, he was responsible for the structuring and placement of more than $200 million in real estate capital and the creation of one of the largest NNN development programs in the United States.
