THE MAINLAND COMPANIES, LLC

Clay Taylor
Director of Development

As Director of Development, Clay works on NNN developments in the retail and medical spaces. He is involved in all aspects of the real estate development from property acquisition to building development to financing to investment sales.

Prior to joining Mainland, Clay was with Net Lease Alliance (NLA) which provided capital to developers of build-to-suit projects with developers in the Eastern United States. Prior to NLA, Clay was VP of Real Estate Development at OGA which focused primarily on the development of dialysis clinics for various national and regional firms.

Prior to OGA, Clay was the CFO of Quality Surgery Centers, a resyndicator of small surgery centers. At QSC Clay focused on the recapitalization and resyndication efforts.

Clay was an investor and a partner at Goldleaf Payment Solutions which was a direct marketer of ACH solutions to business. While there he was critical in the formation of the company and was directly involved in the sales effort.

Clay also has over ten years experience in the investment management field most recently with Stephens Inc. He has a BS in History from the University of Alabama and a MBA from Vanderbilt University with a concentration in both accounting and finance.
