

Remembering Camp Little Notch in your Will or Trust

You can make a difference to Camp Little Notch long into the future by putting Friends of Camp Little Notch in your will or Trust. Thank you for your consideration.

Naming Friends of CLN as a Beneficiary of Your Will or Trust

An easy way of supporting Friends of CLN is by making a provision in your will or trust. Your will designates your beneficiaries and spells out your final wishes. The beneficiaries would include your heirs, of course, but many people include provisions for charitable organizations as well. It is our hope that you will consider including CLN in your plans. The following suggested forms of bequests are examples that can be adapted by you and your attorney to meet your specific intentions.

Specific Bequest A specific bequest names a particular dollar amount or percentage of the estate to be left to Friends of CLN.

“I give and bequeath to Friends of Camp Little Notch, a New York non-profit corporation, Tax ID number 27-0210079, with offices at 160 S. Broadway, Saratoga Springs, NY 12866 the sum of $ _____ (or X% of my estate) to be used for the general purposes of the organization (or to be used for a specific purpose such as A or B).”

Residuary Bequest A residuary bequest first leaves specific amounts to family members, friends, or other charities, and then designates that all or part of what remains should go to Friends of Camp Little Notch.

“I give and bequeath to Friends of Camp Little Notch, a New York non-profit corporation, Tax ID number 27-0210079, with offices at 160 S. Broadway, Saratoga Springs, NY 12866, all (or stated percentage of) the rest residue and remainder of my estate to be used for the general purposes of the organization (or to be used for a specific purpose such as A or B).”

Contingent Bequest A contingent bequest names Friends of Camp Little Notch to receive part or all of your estate in the event your designated beneficiaries predecease you. You might insert in your will language such as the following:

“If any beneficiary named in this will is not living at my decease, then I give and bequeath to Friends of Camp Little Notch, a New York non-profit corporation, Tax ID number 27-021079, with offices at 160 S. Broadway, Saratoga Springs, NY 12866, any bequest which said beneficiary would have received if he or she had survived me.”
