At the beginning of this year, Her Royal Roots introduced a new component called LIT Yeladim. LIT Yeladim is about teaching youth the ways of Torah and is a reminder that we are to be the light of the world and the salt of the earth. Her Royal Roots and Bible Pathways Adventures have forged a beautiful relationship focused on developing tools and resources for the youth to learn and understand Torah. Biweekly, Huldah has been able to put out videos, lesson activities, and outlines that are both interactive and informative.

An Excerpt from Huldah Daud’s upcoming book, With His Own Blood:

“The narrative of creation in Genesis is all about function. In Genesis chapter 1 the word good, which in Hebrew is tov (טוב) is defined according to the Ancient Hebrew Lexicon of the Bible by Jeff Benner is “fulfilling the action for which a person or thing is specially fitted or used, or for which a thing exists; a functioning within its intended purpose. This word is without accident used seven times signifying the complete function of those things and beings which were created. For a thing to operate in its proper function, it has to remain attached to its source. In Hebrew, the function of a thing is considered good. With this function came a link or attachment to the character from whence it was brought forth. The fish optimally function attached to their (cont’d pg. 2)

What a joy it is to have this opportunity to write to each of you! As my journey walking with Yah grows and develops, I have been given incredible opportunities to assist and impact our people. I am immensely thankful and humbled by the journey that Abba has placed me on. The adventures along the way are one thing that I truly enjoy, being the nomadic adventurous individual that I am, but the most impactful part of it all is the many conversations and interactions that I have had with so many people. Each of you makes Living in Torah, LIT. (Cont’d pg. 3) in Hebrew is a berith (covenant). It is a sacred union, honored and upheld between members of a tribe. The covenant places individuals in alignment with one another and binds them together. The LIT agreement is a commitment to live out the way of the Most High. We are agreeing to support one another by taking responsibility for our education and healing, and by raising our level of socialization to a standard that makes us a light to the entire world. The LIT agreement community is composed of individuals who are committed to this calling and agree to use the Word of Elohim as the foundation. We do this because Living in Torah truly is LIT.
An Agreement

respective water sources, the birds when they are in the air, and man when he is operating in the likeness and image of the Yahuah Elohim. The nature of man is not that of the beast, the fowl, or the fish. Man is a physical representation of the glory of the Father in physical form. This is not done to elicit worship of man but so that redemption and love could manifest in a realm where things are understood in a physical form. It is the physical manifestation of the love of Elohim for humanity that caused King David to ask

“What is man that You are mindful of him,
And the son of man that You visit him?
For You have made him a little lower than the angels,
And You have crowned him with glory and honor.
You have made him to have dominion over the works of Your hands;
You have put all things under his feet,
All sheep and oxen—

Even the beasts of the field,
The birds of the air,
And the fish of the sea
That pass through the paths of the seas.”
Proverbs 9: 4-8

“For a thing to operate in its proper function, it has to remain attached to its source.”

LIT Yeladim allows you to be in the driving seat of your children’s education. Scripture tells us to suffer not our children to come to the Messiah and even more so the Word of Elohim. This partnership helps us put the tools into the hands of families that wish to take their children to the next level. To share this information is going to be very instrumental as people wake up all over the four corners of the world. As the light of the world and the salt of the earth, we know that Living in Torah is LIT.
What an incredible experience when your will lines up with Yah’s will and the windows of heaven are literally poured out on your life! After much prayer and planning, I made a really big move across the country from New Jersey to California. I had to work through all of the doubts and fears and shed all feelings of uncertainty and take steps forward daily, and step by step Yah has been a light unto my path.

When Yah calls, we are always to just answer with a simple yes. In these both small and large acts of obedience Yah will inevitably bring us to a place of living our best life. Just a few years back I took a flight to California to observe Sukkot with the ARK. It was me and my parents and we were on a journey to find like minded Torah keeping individuals and community. The experience was literally life changing and I know that many of you can relate.

For many years I questioned what The Most High had for me to do. I have always been a person that has focused on purpose and calling and maneuvered with passion in all that I put my hands to. I have had many adventures in my life from boxing with Team USA and playing college basketball to being a creative, a poet, and a mosaic artist, so far this journey has been incredibly adventurous. Recently, my journey took an exciting turn and it feels as if Yah shined His light upon me and gave me so much of what I have always dreamed of.

“We look forward to meeting you in your city! Through-out the month of March the LIT team will be on the road, doing meetups in various cities. As we travel, we look forward to the many interactions and conversations with each of you. On the weekend of February 23rd and 24th, we had an incredible time of fellowship in Los Angeles. Over 100 people came to gather on Shabbat and then on Sunday Moreh Yoshiyahu and Huldah led men’s and women’s breakout sessions where they taught through Huldah’s companion guide to her book Wisdom Builds.

This year we have many traveling plans to hit various locations both nationally and internationally. We are working diligently to document this journey. If you have pictures from these meetups that you would like to share with us, please remember to tag us on social media and use the hashtag #LITagreement. Pictures can also be sent to info@ourlitlife.com.”
Let’s stay connected. Be sure to check out The LIT Agreement Patreon page regularly for updates, live streams, and insider info. The LIT Agreement has been created to provide customized tools for your growth in Torah. If you have things that you would like to see on the Patreon page, email lauren@our-litlife.com and we will work to create content that will help edify you and your family as you Live in Torah.
