

YOUTH MINISTRY UPDATES

Raeleen says: A lot of interesting things happened this week. It was Natalie's birthday and Mari's birthday but more importantly.... BLACK PANTHER came out!!!! If you have not seen this movie, you need to see it. Like now! Honestly, best Marvel Movie! Agree or disagree with me... But in the end, it is the best! More events to come. So look out for them!

And now for the awesome MOTW:

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY UPDATES

We had an amazing trip to Israel, but I have to say it is always a blessing to come home. There really is nothing like the warmth and love of family. After being on our adventure, I am awestruck at how God calls us into community and how we are called into relationship with one another for a purpose. What is your purpose? at school? in your home? in your social group? How is God calling you to use your gifts and reveal himself to others through you?

Be blessed today and choose to serve others with purpose this week.

Take a look at the events page in the bulletin in order to see what our upcoming family events are!
