“While our girls are here, we want to share with them every important moment of their life. We cry when they cry, we laugh with them. We feel their pain and are thrilled for them when they succeed.”

- Renee Harrison, Executive Director

About Golden Girl

Golden Girl, a nonprofit group home for girls, was founded in 1983 by Judy Gilkerson, who continues with us as our Administrative Consultant/Therapist.

Our home is licensed by the West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources, Offices of: Social Services and Behavioral Health; and is an approved West Virginia Medicaid provider. Golden Girl is a member of the West Virginia Child Care Association and an associate member of the Child Welfare League of America.
