- 1 Joanie Roteman • Treehouse Pottery • 1960 Seacrest Dr., 360-778-0193, synergyeagle@msn.com. Functional hand thrown stoneware in a variety of bright colors and mottled glazes created through a firing down process. Latest firings include bowls of all sizes, mugs, butter dishes, teapots and miniatures. Joanie will be hosting:
  - ◆ Stephen Kendall Kopanos • Seventh-sunrise.com. Showing at the Treehouse Pottery, 1960 Seacrest Dr. Stephen is offering a collection of his limited edition works. The images are largely inspired by the Pacific Northwest landscape and utilize the mediums of photography, digital painting and graphic arts. Stephen rarely signs his works and seldom displays for a general audience. Stephen is available for mini session family and couple photography on Sunday as well.
- 2 Wayne H. Chaudiere • Sculpture Garden • 1698 Seacrest Drive; 360-319-7508, www.waynechaudiere.com/. Wayne reveals the softer side of cold hard steel. Sculptures displayed in NW waterfront landscape.
- 3 Edmund Lowe • Showing at the Heritage Trust Resource Center, 3560 Sunrise Rd. Unique views of Lummi Island and greater Pacific Northwest landscapes along with photos of the historic Reefnet fishery taken from a fisherman's perspective. Ed has developed a post processing technique that is inspired from vintage photos that makes his work unique. Note cards and prints will be available with a percentage of the proceeds going to the Heritage Trust. www.flickr.com/photos/edbob/.
- 4 Diana Pepper and John Robinson • Tree Frog Farm • 3679 Sunrise Rd, 360-758-7260, www.treefrogfarm.com. Natural Healing Arts Center featuring local flower essences and aromatherapy products. Sample our new flower essences made this year! Tour the labyrinth garden, walk the alder grove path and enjoy the many birds. Diana will be available for essence consultations and energy healings.
- 5 Lynn Dee • Lynn Dee Studios • 1669 South Nugent, 360-758-2815, lynndeestudios.com and lynndeestudios@gmail.com. Saggar fired vases and covered jars. Saggar-firing creates colorful surface effects on clay by fuming and smoking each piece within a closed form in the raku kiln. Raku Starfish jars and other decorative raku pottery and sculpture with metallic and crackle glazes.
