LEAD PLANNER

"As you grow older, you will discover that you have two hands, one for helping yourself, the other for helping others." – Audrey Hepburn

Truth be told, at any given moment, four of the last five YouTube videos I have watched were wedding videos, or had something to do with weddings! The obsession with each detail throughout the day is well, real! I have a passion for helping people and my goal is to help turn your wedding dreams into a beautiful reality.

I like to think of myself as a bit of a perfectionist and your wedding will be no exception. From centerpieces to name cards, invitations to timelines, I will help ensure that you feel calm and organized throughout the entire planning process. I will take on projects big and small so that you feel completely taken care of, and can actually be a guest at your own wedding.

One of the most exciting aspects of a wedding for me, is seeing all the hard work of planning come to fruition and witnessing the look on your faces when you see your reception room for the first time. It's a small moment that not everyone gets to see and it's a true honor that I get to be a part of it! My attention to detail and strong eye for design will help ensure you and your big day, are nothing short of flawless.

When I'm not obsessing over wedding details, you can find me writing in my journal, brunching with friends, (let's be honest, it's an art form) planning my next getaway, shopping for new makeup and cheering loudly for my beloved Marquette Golden Eagles!! I am a lover of strong coffee, cozy sweaters and a good black eyeliner.

I can't wait to meet you and make all your weddings dreams come true!
