EXPERT PLANNER

"There are all kinds of love in this world, but never the same love twice." - F. Scott Fitzgerald

Love is one of the most powerful thing that you never want to let go. Your wedding day should be as beautiful and unique as your love.

Along with a lot of planning, attention to detail and a fabulous design, I am here to help you make that dream day come true! Over the course of five years I have worked on both sides of the wedding industry; as a planner at multiple venues and a manager overseeing venues. These experiences have provided me with the best insight to help create your day to be as flawless as possible. From knowing which entree will pair best with your salad to how many seats are comfortable at each table.

Wedding planning should be an enjoyable experience. I am here to ease your stress and make sure that curl is pinned when it goes undone, your place cards are set in order and to make sure grandma has a seat right up front next to mom and dad. For me, the absolute best part about being a wedding planner is celebrating you and your partner. To see all of your time, dreams and ideas come to life. Now it's time for you to enjoy just that!

Things I love: My family, my dog Leo (named after Leonardo DiCaprio), traveling anywhere, enjoying a cup of coffee on my patio, fresh flowers, meeting new people, kayaking and watching ocean sunsets

Things I wish I loved: Painting, beer, heights, snowboarding and drawing

Things that inspire me: simplicity, luscious bouquets, good books, people and exploring new cities
