MARGARET

LEAD PLANNER

"The most important thing is to enjoy your life — to be happy — it's all that matters" - Audrey Hepburn

I come from a big family where we celebrate as much as possible. I have been raised on the idea that all parties need a theme and everyone has an important role in the celebration, so, it only made sense that I fell in love with wedding planning. I want to help you celebrate one of the most important days of your life! I love bringing a bride's vision to reality and seeing the joy that family and friends experience being as they are a part of the big day.

After years in the event planning world, I am accustomed to creating events of all sizes with varying needs. My attention to detail, coupled with my creativity and passion for making others happy, inevitably led me to pursuing my career as a wedding planner. I find that wedding planning allows me to focus on and embrace the celebration of the most important things in life: love and family.

I believe every wedding should be as unique as each couple's story; and I am eager to assist with the personal touches that make your wedding one of the best days of your life. I am vested in providing weddings that exceed your expectations! I believe weddings should be a fun and exciting event for everyone involved and I will make it my personal responsibility to ensure that you enjoy your wedding day without having anything to worry about.

When I'm not busy planning weddings, I enjoy baking (don't be surprised if I bring cupcakes to a meeting!) and spending time with family and friends. I LOVE Sunday brunches, street fests during the summer and exploring the city. I don't think there is a better city in the world than Chicago and I can't wait to have the opportunity to help you plan your big day here!
