Vote in the PVHA election

If you are a property owner in PVE or Miraleste you should have received the first ballot ever sent by the Palos Verdes Homes Association with choices for Director. If you wonder what those "Save Parkland" signs are all about, it is this election. For the election to be valid, a quorum of half the property owners plus one must vote. Without a quorum the current Board just stays on for another year. With a quorum we have an elected Board and one with staggered terms which was the original intent. So all benefit if we get a quorum.

If you did not receive a ballot then you must get one at the Homes Association offices in Malaga Cove. They are open weekdays except for Tuesday and are off for lunch.

Ballots must be received in Los Angeles by Jan. 4, 2017, so vote now if you have not done so already.
