Dear Friends,

Happy new year from all of us at The Academy!

It’s so hard to believe that the school year is already half over. Just a few short months ago we welcomed the Class of 2025 to our campus with our traditional greeting: “welcome home”. And, because of the pandemic, the Class of 2024 (now our tenth graders) began attending classes on campus full time for the first time.

While the pandemic continues to present challenges for schools everywhere, our community has risen to the challenge and continues to produce incredible work from across the school. Already this year each of our departments has demonstrated top work in public exhibitions, recitals, shows, concerts, and more, and it feels like we’re just getting started.

Of course, the spirit of every fall is characterized by the Annual AIDS Benefit, and this year’s production was another incredible success, raising more than $13,000 for the Elizabeth Glaser Pediatric AIDS Foundation. Congratulations to the cast and crew!

We hope that you will join us for our 40th Anniversary Gala, scheduled for Saturday, May 14 at the Radisson Blu Hotel. See the inside for more details!

Amidst all of the successes of our students (and the heroic work of their teachers), we continue to mourn the passing of two Academy legends: Alice Gold and Pat Rusk. Both were foundational to the spirit and success of our school, and their presence will be felt in our community for many generations to come. Rest in peace, dear friends: we owe you both an enormous debt of gratitude.

We hope you will join us and Pat’s family and friends for a celebration of her life on Friday, February 25 at 7:00 PM.

Finally, I have some important news about my health. Please see page 17 for more details.

We hope you’ll enjoy this newsletter. Happy new year, friends!

A NOTE FROM JASON PATERA

Dear Friends,

I’m writing with some important personal health news that impacts the Academy community.

After managing some concerning symptoms for many months, an MRI has revealed a large (likely benign) brain tumor that has grown to such a size that requires major surgery in the weeks ahead.

My surgery is scheduled for Tuesday, February 15. While the risk of life-threatening complications is very low, I have been counseled to expect a difficult recovery. Sadly, I will be on leave from The Academy from February 12 through (barring unforeseen complications) April 10.

During this time, I am thrilled that Audrey Perrott will serve as The Academy’s Acting Head of School. Audrey is the Head of School Emeritus at Near North Montessori School, where she served in a variety of capacities for three decades before “retiring” last spring. (Fun fact: The Academy replaced NNMS as the tenant at 1010 W. Chicago in 1992.)

Audrey is a legend in the Chicago independent school world and a dear personal friend, and I have tremendous faith in her experience, expertise, and desire to support our community during this time. Further, I have absolute confidence in the leadership, expertise, and spirit of our board, administration, faculty, and staff. Between them and Audrey, our community is in great hands.

Please know that I am in a very good place emotionally. I am filled with gratitude for my incredible good fortune (which is highlighted in a very poignant way by a diagnosis like this), and I am entering this situation embracing the idea that “the path is the teacher”. My spirits are high, and I’m looking forward to finding humor and good stories in this wherever possible. (Plus, I’ve been promised a very serious-looking scar.)

Thank you, friends, for your support and goodwill in the weeks ahead. While I won’t be able to respond to school-related matters, I’d love to hear from you while I’m out! I’m eager to spend the weeks ahead checking out artwork of any discipline that you find inspiring so send me a note and some links via our acting Director of Development, Evan Pazkowski.
