About the Hanger Charitable Foundation Scholarship – The Hanger Charitable Foundation is interested in helping children with limb loss or limb difference get to Camp No Limits. In 2016, Hanger, Inc. donated $100,000 to create scholarships for first-time campers (plus one parent/ guardian per camper), returning families and teen mentors to attend any of the 2016 Camp No Limit camps. They have granted to the same funds for Camp No Limits’ 2017 season!

Details: The value of each Hanger Charitable Foundation Scholarship is $1,000. Each scholarship covers the cost of attendance for two individuals ($500 for the camper; $500 for one parent/guardian) at one 2017 Camp No Limits camp and includes lodging, meals, and most activities at that camp. The Hanger Charitable Foundation Scholarship does not cover the cost of travel/transportation to and from the camp, or any discretionary purchases such as camp merchandises, raffles, and ancillary activities.

Selection process: The Camp No Limits staff will manage the 2017 Hanger Charitable Foundation Scholarship application process, select the scholarship recipients, and communicate the scholarship selections to the parents/children. The Hanger Charitable Foundation Scholarship is eligible to children under the age of 18 years old at the time of application who have limb loss or limb difference. Preference will be given to first time campers.
