

NORTH CANTERBURY

Wine & Food Festival

CONVERSATIONZ

Lincoln University is bringing the ConversatioNZ tent back to the festival! Grab a seat nice an early for the 20-30 minute talks at the festival and listen to dynamic wine and food duos, made up of some of the best wine and food producers of the region. If you get close enough, you may even get a chance to sample the goods...

ConversatioNZ is a movement initiated by chefs and people in the food industry with the aim of highlighting the availability, quality and vast array of edible resources in New Zealand. For more about ConversatioNZ's mission, visit conversationz.co.nz

---

TIMETABLE

---

TESSA WILLIAMS

11.20 AM

Introduction to the day of talks inside the ConversatioNZ tent from Lincoln University Students' Association Vice President

GIULIO & ANGELA

11.30AM

Giulio Sturla from Roots Restaurant and Tongue in Groove's Angela Clifford will talk about NZ's food movement

GREG & BELINDA

12.15PM

Greg Ryan from Lincoln University and Belinda Gould from Brew Moon Brewing Co. will talk about wild beer and where it's all heading

DANIEL & NICHOLAS

1.00PM

Owner of Kaikoura Cheese, Daniel Jenkins, and Nicholas Brown from Black Estate will speak on the art of fermentation

JONNY & NICK

1.45PM

Nose-to-tail chef, Jonny Schwass and Nick Gill from Greystone Wines get chatty about North Canterbury's wild meat and wines

TOM & TRISH

2.30PM

Tom Hishon from award-winning Auckland restaurant, Orphans Kitchen, and Trish Coleman from Muddy look at how good communities have the power to create good food movements

JADE & VIC

3.15PM

Jade Tempepara from Kakano Café and Vic Tutton from the Boneline take us back to the roots of Maori food, its history and the importance of its geology

TESSA WILLIAMS

4.00PM

Tessa will wrap up the day's dynamic conversations with a quick 10 minute summary

#NCwineandfood

ncwineandfood.co.nz