

Otto Von Schirach and Gio Profera Present Valentine's Day Milk Wrestling

Some things in this world that are awesome on their own, but transform into a boat-load of nope if paired with something equally as enjoyable. Pineapple lasagna. Banana wine. Rib-eye ice cream. Greatness doesn't always pair well with greatness.

Thanks to local musicians Otto Von Schirach and Gio Profera, it's a thing we are about to be confronted by another such pairing: milk and wrestling. The eccentric pair of Miamians have announced that they have put together the Valentine's Day celebration that you didn't know you needed, a night of booze, music, and yes, milk wrestling.

The event, dubbed "The Coolest Valentine's Day on Miami Beach," takes place Tuesday, February 14, from 9 p.m. to 5 a.m. at Sweet Liberty Drinks & Supply Co. Otto will be hosted the event, which includes DJ sets courtesy of Gio.

Now that you have all the particulars of the event, let's circle back to the why. Why, why on earth, milk wrestling?

"I have always been fascinated with the weird, the odd, and the trashy," Profera tells New Times. "I always like to think I put the ass in classy. Also, we have done milk before, and the crowd was all about it. So we decided to bring it back."

Fair enough. When in search for a reason to wrestle in milk, you can't really expect an answer that makes you think, Oh, yeah that totally makes sense. But there are still so many questions. Like, how much milk will they need to fill the wrestling pool?

"If my calculations are correct, it will take 43 gallons of white whole milk to make this vision come alive," Profera says.

Where does one pick up 43 gallons of milk?

"Otto and I milk the cows ourselves."

Wait. What?

"I'm kidding. We will have to go to a couple of stores. This is why I love America."

Still on the fence as to whether milk wrestling is for you? Consider this: the event will not only feature girl-on-girl, dude-on-bro, and dude-on-girl wrestling, but also a drag-queen-on-drag-queen match. Winners will receive a free bottle, a championship belt, and title of "Tremando Lechaso."

Still not sold? Profera says live a little and break the same old boring mold you've been conforming to since high school.

"Valentine's Day can suck if you're broke or alone, so there is no cover to this event. Also, it's fun!" Profera says. "No boring dinner or long-ass movie, just hot girl-on-girl and drag-queen-on-drag-queen action in white milk. Pure wholesome entertainment."

Valentine's Day Milk Wrestling

9 p.m. Tuesday, February 14, at Sweet Liberty Drinks & Supply Co., 237 20th St., Miami Beach; 305-763-8217; mysweetliberty.com. Admission is free.