are also four breweries in the district, the most recent of which is Veza Sur Brewing Co., opening this year as a grown-up's playground teeming with beer cocktails and brews served Brazilian "chopp" style. For a more intimate atmosphere, head to microbrew specialist Boxelder's dimly lit L-shaped bar. Gramps' tropical dive aesthetic lures the tattooed and skinny jean crowd with weekly drag queen bingo and karaoke nights.

Don't let big box retail like Target dissuade you from visiting Midtown, just north of Wynwood. Sugarcane, with its James Beard nomination in 2011, led to the >

★ COCKTAIL CRAWL

Award-winning barman John Lermayer of Sweet Liberty picks the town's best drinks

Little Havana

Lermayer sticks with the classic mojito at the Cuban throwback Ball & Chain. "The bar is what a Cuban bar should be."

Brickell

The Blackbird at Blackbird Ordinary is a punchy combo of sweet tea, vodka, lemonade and blackberries. "Absolute genius cocktail," says Lermayer.

Wynwood

Seek out the Hirsh's Kiss (bourbon, cocoa nib-infused Disaronno, lemon, blackberry, and black tea syrup) at Beaker & Gray. "Despite the suspect name, the cocktail is delicious," he says.

Upper East Side

When at The Anderson bar, nab the whiskey/coconut water combo called the 51st State, a favorite among a menu of standout cocktails. Simply put: "You won't regret it."
