Dating in Houston can be pretty costly, and not just emotionally; a steakhouse dinner here, a craft cocktail there... it all adds up. But don't worry! We came up with 20 ways you can have an awesome Houston date for under $20, then we added one more for luck.

Do breakfast & a movie

And by breakfast, we mean bottomless popcorn. You have until 2pm to get out of bed if you want to catch the $5 movies at Alamo Drafthouse. That means you can also pack in $7 bottomless popcorn and still keep the date under 20 bucks. The offer runs seven days a week all summer long. Note: at some point, the deal may switch to a nighttime offer, in which case change "breakfast" to "midnight snack" and this list still works.
