pa-se-o (pā-sā'ō): noun, origin Spanish
A leisurely evening stroll to enjoy the awakened city.

Paseo is a healing event to celebrate and uplift the voices and accomplishments of our city's diverse artists, community advocates, and mutual aid groups. Our goal: to boldly awaken downtown by showcasing the power of community strength, creativity, and unity while not ignoring the very real change the streets of Portland's downtown have seen in the last two years.

Paseo's steering committee of social justice, arts, parks, and outdoors leaders designed Paseo to honor and amplify the creativity and resilience of Portland's diverse communities in the heart of our city.

STEERING COMMITTEE:

Ambush, The Numberz
Tai Carpenter, Don't Shoot Portland
Sarah Clarke, Musicians in Solidarity,
MusicPortland
Subashini Ganesan, Creative Laureate
Portland Emeritus

Bob Gandolfi, Portland Parks
Foundation Board
Andre Middleton, Friends of Noise
Stephanie Parrish, Portland Art Museum
Darryl Ramsey, Outdoor Afro
Chie Togo, Forest Park Conservancy

Portland Parks Foundation

The Portland Parks Foundation mobilizes support to improve Portland's system of parks, natural areas, and public spaces.

We believe in the power of these places to strengthen communities, address historic inequities, and create a sense of belonging for everyone in Portland.

We help people help parks.
