

Community Advisory Forum

Bud Clark Commons
 1st Floor Multipurpose Room
 655 NW Irving Street, Portland, OR
 Wednesday, October 18th, 2017
 2:00pm – 4:00pm

1. Welcome and Introductions	2:00-2:10
2. Diversity and Equity Question & Development of group agreement CAF uses this time to promote and inspire conversations on diversity and equity to enhance our work in the community.	2:10-2:30
3. Multnomah County Library Rules Update—Vailey Oehlke, Director of Libraries, and Don Allgeier, Director of Library Operations It has been 20 years since the Multnomah County Library has made significant changes to the library rules. After an extensive and thoughtful review process, a leadership team from the library has developed policies on food and beverages, threatening behavior, the amount of personal belongings allowed at the library, and weapons. All of the Library rules are to ensure protection of individual rights and necessary accommodations. Vailey Oehlke and Don Allgeier will present an overview of the rule changes and will respond to questions and suggestions from the group. You can review the rules on the Multnomah County Library website, or by clicking here .	2:30-3:00
4. Livability Updates with Mayor Ted Wheeler’s Staff, Berk Nelson, Senior Advisor, and Seraphie Allen, Policy Advisor and Community Affairs Liaison Mayor Ted Wheeler has updated how local government engages with and enforces safety and livability in the City of Portland. The Mayor’s staff will be discussing current initiatives to date and plans for the future.	3:00-3:30
5. Chronic Homelessness Plan Update, Ryan Deibert, Joint Office of Homeless Services The Joint Office of Homeless Services will be providing a forum with a status update on the work completed so far, and next steps towards for finalizing the Chronic Homelessness Plan.	3:30-4:00

Next Meeting:
Wednesday, November 15th, 2017
2:00pm – 4:00 pm
Bud Clark Commons, 655 NW Irving Street, 1st Floor Multipurpose Room
Metered parking available on streets or in parking lots near Union Station
 For more information about “A Home for Everyone: A United Community Plan to End Homelessness in Multnomah County” go to: ahomeforeveryone.net