Resources and Eligibility Criteria for Adult and Family Coordinated Access in Multnomah County

Terms defined

Chronic homelessness	HUD defines a person experiencing chronic homelessness as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • An individual who: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Lives in a place not meant for human habitation or an emergency shelter; and ○ Has been doing so continuously for 12+ months or has had 4+ episodes of homelessness in the last 3 years for a period that adds up to at least 12 months; and ○ Has a disability • Or an individual residing in an institutional facility (i.e. jail, hospital, substance use or mental health treatment facility, etc.) for fewer than 90 days who was in a place not meant for human habitation or emergency shelter immediately prior; and who resided in one or more of those locations for at least 12 consecutive months or has had 4+ episodes of homelessness in the last 3 years for a period that adds up to at least 12 months; and has a disability • Or a family with a head of household who meets all of the above criteria You can find a flowchart of this definition and documentation standards here: www.hudexchange.info/resource/5181/flowchart-of-huds-definition-of-chronic-homelessness
Disabling condition	HUD defines a disability as having one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Physical, mental or emotional impairment, including impairment caused by alcohol or drug abuse, post-traumatic stress disorder, or brain injury that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Is expected to be of long-continuing or indefinite duration, & ○ Substantially impedes the person’s ability to live independently, & ○ Could be improved by suitable housing • Developmental disability • HIV/AIDS For the purpose of PSH, verification is not needed at time of assessment, but is required before entry into a PSH program.
Permanent Supportive Housing (PSH)	PSH is permanent housing with supportive services to assist persons experiencing homelessness who have a disability to live independently. Supportive services are designed to meet the needs of participants and must be offered for the entire duration of program participation. PSH may be single site, scattered site or clustered, and can be integrated with affordable or market-rate units. Housing assistance can be project-based (tied to a unit) or tenant-based (tenant must secure a unit in the market).
Rapid Re-Housing (RRH)	RRH is designed to help currently homeless households achieve and maintain permanent housing stability as quickly as possible. RRH offers flexible funding, rental assistance and supportive services, and ranges from one-time financial assistance through a maximum of 12 or 24 months of rental assistance and/or supportive services, depending on the funding source.
Recovery-Oriented Transitional Housing (TH)	“Recovery Housing is a housing model that uses substance use-specific services, peer support, and physical design features to support individuals and families on a particular path to recovery from addiction, typically emphasizing abstinence. The personal recovery journey is different for everyone, and some people who experience homelessness and who are pursuing recovery express a preference for a housing environment that is abstinence-focused and uses a peer-driven community to support recovery.” (HUD Recovery Housing Policy Brief) All local HUD-funded Recovery-Oriented TH is managed by Central City Concern and short-term (from 4 to 24 months), site-based (meaning participants have units in the same building with services on-site), and alcohol and drug free. Participants receive individualized, intensive case management with a focus on supporting recovery and achieving long-term housing stability.
