Dear Quilt Show Merchant,

Every two years, the quilt guilds in Broward County, Florida, come together to present the Broward Quilt Expo (BQE). It is one of the most exciting and expansive quilt shows in South Florida! Our next show will be held on Thursday through Saturday, March 9th - March 11th, 2017, at the War Memorial Auditorium in sunny Fort Lauderdale!

This year's theme is JAZZ!!

Over those three days, thousands of viewers will come to the show to:

- See hundreds of examples of traditional quilts, art quilts, modern quilts, hand-pieced quilts, mini quilts, and special exhibits, to name a few!
- Participate in classes taught by nationally-known quilting instructors and authors Nancy Mahoney and Sherri Lynn Wood.
- Shop with quilt show merchants who travel to South Florida from across the country to display their unique wares that are available for sale for just 3 days.
- View and experience quilt show merchant demonstrations.

Shopping is always a major part of the BQE experience and it is my job to bring our viewers the most spectacular shopping opportunities possible, so we want YOU!!

BQE booths fill up quickly, and they are offered on a first-come, first-served basis. We encourage you to consider joining us as a vendor in 2017, and are offering an early commitment discount! Just respond to this invitation at your earliest convenience and I'll send you the full vendor package for your review. I hope to see you at Broward Quilt Expo 2017!

Please also visit our website at www.browardquiltexpo.com, where you can see what we're all about, get more information about our show, and register as a Merchant to make your deposit via PayPal.

Hope to hear from you!
