

SCENIC CORRIDOR DESIGNATION ORDINANCE
OF
TRANSYLVANIA COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

TITLE

This Ordinance shall be known and may be cited as the "Scenic Corridor Designation Ordinance of Transylvania County, North Carolina."

ARTICLE I

AUTHORITY

This Ordinance is established by the Transylvania County Board of Commissioners pursuant to the authority conferred in Section 153A-121(a) of the North Carolina General Statutes and pursuant to Section 5 of the "Sign Control Ordinance of Transylvania County, North Carolina." The Board of Commissioners hereby ordains and enacts into law the following articles and sections.

ARTICLE II

SCENIC CORRIDORS

For purposes of establishing areas which are particularly beautiful and which offer the most outstanding views of the natural grandeur of our mountains, as seen by the public while traveling on the roads and highways in Transylvania County, the following areas are designated as a Scenic Corridor in which no off premise outdoor advertising signs may be erected:

Little Mountain: That portion of N.C. Highway 280 beginning at the intersection of Hudlin Gap Road (SR 1510) and N.C. Highway 280 and spanning from the beginning to the top of Little Mountain.

N.C. 215: Those portions of N.C. 215 located in Transylvania County beginning at the intersection of the Blue Ridge Parkway and N.C. 215 and spanning from the beginning to U.S. 64.

U.S. 64: That portion of U.S. 64 beginning at the intersection of U.S. 64 and Israel Road (SR 1329) and spanning one (1) mile west from the beginning to the top of New Cut.

Toxaway Falls: That portion of U.S. 64 beginning at the intersection of U.S. 64 west and N.C. 281 and spanning from the beginning to the west side of the Toxaway Falls Bridge.

Staton Road: That portion of Staton Road (SR 1593) beginning at the intersection of Cascade Lake Road (SR 1536) and Staton Road (SR 1593) and spanning from the beginning to Crab Creek Road (SR 1528).

N.C. 281 (Whitewater Falls): That portion of N.C. 281 beginning at the intersection of U.S. 64 and N.C. 281 and spanning from the beginning to the North Carolina/South Carolina state line.

U.S. 276: That portion of U.S. 276 beginning at the intersection of U.S. 64, U.S. 276 and N.C. 280 and spanning from the beginning to the entrance to the Blue Ridge Parkway.
