Annual KidWorks Classic Charity Golf Tournament Comes to Newport Coast

Popular charity tournament set for Pelican Hill North Course, May 18

Santa Ana, Calif. – This year, panoramic ocean views from every tee box, open canyons and golf at a cliff's edge will challenge foursomes in the 4th Annual KidWorks Classic Golf Tournament. Presented by the Outlets at San Clemente and Citadel Outlets Los Angeles, the popular charity event comes for the first time to the Pelican Hill North Course at The Resort at Pelican Hill in Newport Coast on Wednesday, May 18.

Interested parties are urged to register their Corporate Foursome before March 18th to take advantage of early bird pricing. Sponsorships are also going quickly for the tournament that will be funding educational opportunities for at-risk youth living in Santa Ana's low-income, high-crime neighborhoods who depend upon the tutoring, academic enrichment and leadership programs offered by nonprofit KidWorks.

Golfer registration includes a breakfast burrito and Bloody Mary bar, gourmet on-course food and drinks, on-course contests, plus a reception, live auction and awards ceremony after the tournament.

In addition to the generosity of the presenting sponsors, support will be coming from Diamond level sponsor KPMG. The Orange County Register is again the tournament's media sponsor. Wells Fargo is again sponsoring the Travis Mathew golf shirts that all registered golfers will receive

The scramble-style tournament begins with a 9 am registration, breakfast and access to the practice range. A big drive contest is scheduled for 10:30 am, followed by an 11:00 am shotgun start. At 3:45 pm, the 19th Hole Reception begins, followed at 5:00pm by the awards ceremony, live auction, and opportunity drawing.
