

For Immediate Release
August 30, 2016

Nonprofit KidWorks Participates in the USDA Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP)

Santa Ana, Calif. – Nonprofit KidWorks is participating in the Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP) of the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA).

KidWorks is headquartered at 1902 W. Chestnut Avenue in Santa Ana, California and does not discriminate against any person because of race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability

For more information about KidWorks, please visit www.kidworksoc.org.

About KidWorks

Since 1993, KidWorks has helped at-risk children, youth and families in Santa Ana, California thrive in body, mind and spirit. As a 501(C)(3) nonprofit, KidWorks offers educational support, leadership and character-building programs, and health and fitness activities that begin with preschoolers and follow youth into their college years. KidWorks' main building, the Dan Donahue Center, serves the highest number of children and offers a state-licensed preschool. In total, KidWorks operates three centers that have become safe havens in gang-heavy, high-crime and overcrowded residential areas in central Santa Ana. KidWorks serves nearly 800 children, youth and parents weekly and reaches over 4,000 community members annually. To learn more about KidWorks and to read its success stories, please visit www.kidworksoc.org.