

Preschool Newsletter

Dear Parents,

October is full of fun learning activities. The children will be exposed to the color brown, the triangle shape, Dental Hygiene (each child will practice daily tooth brushing with a personal tooth brush), and to the monthly theme "Harvest." We will be implementing an Earthquake Drill sometime this month as part of our Health and Safety Education Plan.

Preschool PAC (Parent Advisory Council) will have its first meeting October 16th. This group is involved with the planning and preparation of various activities as well as with important decisions that impact the preschool program. Look for our sign-up sheet if you are interested in joining, or ask any preschool staff to add you to the list.

We'll be participating in Read for the Record this October 19th, 2017 the story this year is "Quackers" by Liz Wong. Children are encouraged to bring a stuff animal, picture, plastic toy, or a book about a cat/duck to share as part of our Read for the Record Activity.

Mrs. Sarah will be providing your child with yoga exercises every Tuesday during the school year. Please dress him/her up with comfortable clothing to exercise. If you have any questions talk to your child's teacher.
