Citizens4Community Sisters Country Civility Project

PRESENTING C4C's
WINTER QUARTER 2017
Community Gathering & Free Skill-Building Workshop...

Soaring Toward... Building Community Through 'Constructive Confrontation'

WHEN: 5:30-7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 25, 2017

WHERE: The Sisters Fire Station Community Hall, 301 S. Elm St.

SESSION 1: Recap of C4C and the Sisters Country Civility Project, plus our inaugural "Soup & Civility" event—(5:30 to approximately 6 p.m.)

YOU'LL LEARN: About Citizens4Community's Civility Project as you also connect and break bread with fellow members of the community during a complimentary light meal, offered with the help of local sponsors, including Melvin's Fir Street Market.

SESSION 2: Skill-Building focused on how to "Be Agreeable" (even amid clashing values), tool #6 of the 9 "tools" of the Civility Project. (6-7:30 p.m.)

FEATURING: Gregg Walker, a professor of Communication at Oregon State University and an internationally recognized expert in negotiation and conflict management and resolution.

YOU'LL LEARN: New, powerful ways to build trust and facilitate cooperation—even in the midst of strong disagreement. During his workshop on "Constructive Confrontation," Mr. Walker will share techniques to safely and respectfully respond to disagreement and negotiate with others for changes in behavior.
