

Creating Age-Friendly Communities

A Thriving Community For All Generations

Dr. Margaret B. Neal, PhD
Director, Institute on Aging

A Town Hall Meeting:

Friday, Nov. 3

- 2-4 p.m.
- Sisters Community Church

This informative event will be hosted by the Sisters Senior Alliance in partnership with Citizens4Community of Sisters. We look forward to seeing you on Nov. 3 at:

Sisters Community Church
(in the Auditorium)
1300 W. McKenzie Hwy.
Sisters, OR 97759

Margaret B. Neal, Ph.D., is Director of the Institute on Aging and Professor of Urban Studies in the College of Urban and Public Affairs at Portland State University. She teaches graduate courses in gerontology, survey design and data collection, and global aging.

Dr. Neal led Portland's participation in the 2006-2007 World Health Organization's Global Age-Friendly Cities project and has co-coordinated the Age-Friendly Portland and Multnomah County initiatives since then.

An international speaker who is widely published on the topics of age-friendly communities and combining paid work with unpaid care for elders, Dr. Neal works closely with the Older Adult Behavioral Health Initiative and the state of Oregon.

Sponsored by

For further information, please contact : Angela.Jensen@cohealthcouncil.org