

Studio Sundays at the Gallery

Beat the Sunday-afternoon blues. Studio Sundays at the Gallery are fun for art-lovers big and small. Families explore our exhibitions through family-focused tours, hands on art-making, and special Sunday events with storytelling and special guest artists.

Studio Sundays are proudly presented by:

APRIL 2017

SUNDAYS | 2 - 4 PM
BMO Learning Centre

APRIL 2: READING AND RESPONDING TO MWAKWA TALKS TO THE LOON BY DALE AUGER

Listen to Dale Auger's story of a young Cree man who is an excellent hunter, but takes his gifts for granted. Create your own short picture book with watercolour illustrations about a lesson you have learned in your own life.

APRIL 9: RHYTHMS AND PATTERNS IN THE CANADIAN LANDSCAPE

Make an oil pastel image of a Canadian Landscape, with an emphasis on the patterns you can see in the objects, colours, and shapes of that landscape.

APRIL 16: SCARY MONSTERS- EXPLORING OUR FEARS

Explore and challenge your fears by creating a unique monster! Use acrylic paints to bring your creature to life.

APRIL 23: ABSTRACTING ARTWORK COLLAGE

Look for ways to simplify the shapes in the images in Across the Turtle's Back: The Kampelmacher Memorial Collection of Indigenous Art, and create your own abstracted collage.

APRIL 30: RHYTHMS AND PATTERNS IN THE CANADIAN LANDSCAPE

Make an oil pastel image of a Canadian Landscape, with an emphasis on the patterns you can see in the objects, colours, and shapes of that landscape.
