Comments:

- like the talk about splitting between NX and TEAMCENTER(we do not use teamcenter)
- More training or tips and tricks
- much more user tips and tricks focused than most of the Catia user groups I have attended
- I thought for the first meeting it went very well...
- Mike Miller did a great job pointing out tips and tricks for NX9
- I found the Mike Miller to be an excellent presenter, I was very appreciative of the tricks and tips he showed.
